Notes

Unidentified male called HQ 4 times from a withheld number to ask about Laura Ordaz and check her welfare. (Laura was transported from Middlesex County Jail to Sussex County Jail on warrants on Monday, 12/22.) Caller said he is not a relative, just a facebook friend, and he and others are concerned about her. He was advised there is no need to be concerned, the department is aware of her circumstances, and no information can be given to him at this time. He was unreasonable, stated several times all police are corrupt and the court is corrupt. He would not wait to speak to a supervisor. During the 4th call he said he and others will come to Laura's house in Vernon this weekend. Cpl Mutz advised.

2251- Woman named Amy called HQ from a withheld number asking about Laura, same deal. Ptl Russo at HQ handling the phone call.

2305- Ptl Russo responding to residence at 3 Vanderhoof Court to see if anyone is there. Amy refused to give a callback number and will call back later so Ptl Russo can tell her the results of the welfare check.

Mr. Hanifan:

Following your instructions and given to me by your paralegal, I am servicing this Interrogatories and Demand for Admission to the Vernon Township Police Department and the Vernon Township High School which I am enclosing a copy of those request for your easy referral. I am expecting to have a response within ten (10) as stated on the New Jersey Rules.

Also, I am including a copy of the Case Assignment Order which states that any request for discovery must be sent to the municipal prosecutor, contrary to your statements made to me on Tuesday 13, 2914 at the Municipal Court, statements I am quoting:

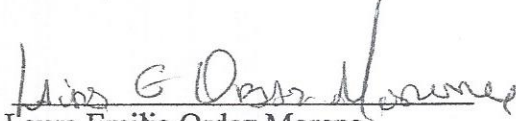

“You don’t need to see evidence or documents, here is the witness, can you see him, can you see him?”

Statements I consider out of line and disrespectful from your part. I am also notifying you of my intentions to file a Motion to Change Venue, due to the possible bias and unfair trial, if one is held.

Thank you for your attention
